5 INFORMATION AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

- 5.1 The following information held by the Company, as prescribed by section 51(1)(c) of PAIA, is made available automatically, without the need for formal, written request.
- 5.2 Automatically available information includes –
 - 5.2.1 Media releases;
 - 5.2.2 Price lists;
 - 5.2.3 Terms and conditions forms; and
 - 5.2.4 Documents provided on the Company's website;

6 HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS NOT AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

- 6.1 In terms of section 51(1)(e), PAIA directs that a person seeking to request information or records from the Company ("Requester") may be provided with access to such information or record, provided that the purpose thereof relates to the exercise or protection of the Requester's Rights. A Public Body will only be entitled to request information from the Company if they are acting on behalf of the interest of the public.
- 6.2 A request for access to records held by the Company must be made in writing on the request form attached to this Manual as Annexure A ("Request Form"), and submitted to the Information Officer.
- 6.3 When making such a request, the Requester is directed to take note of the following –
 - 6.3.1 the request must provide sufficient detail on the Request Form to enable the Information Officer to clearly identify the record, as well as the identity of the Requester;

6.3.2 the Requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or protected by virtue of their request, and must provide an explanation as to why the requested record is required for the protection or exercise of such right

6.3.3 if the request is made on behalf of another person, the Requester must submit proof, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request. The Information Officer is therefore entitled to request such proof as he deems fit, including the identification information or contact details of the person, to verify that they have given their permission for such information to be requested on their behalf;

6.3.4 the request must indicate the form of access sought or required (e.g. hard copy, certified copy, original document, electronic copy etc), and should specify the details required for the information to be provided to the Requester (e.g. the Requester's postal address, email address, etc);

6.3.5 if the requested record does not relate solely to the Requester, and contains the protected information of other persons, then the Requester will only be entitled to access and receive the relevant sections of such records insofar as it pertains to them.

6.3.6 fees may be payable as prescribed by law, and as indicated in this Manual and Annexure B attached hereto;

6.3.7 Once the Requester has submitted the Request Form to the Information Officer, an answer must be provided within 30 days of the request. If the request has been refused, the Information Officer must provide the reasons for such refusal. If the Requester is not satisfied with such reasons, they may approach the courts within 30 days of receipt of the answer.

7 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND/OR RECORDS

7.1 Part 3, Chapter 4 of PAIA sets out instances when a request for information must be refused. These grounds for the refusal of access to information and/or records include –

7.1.1 the protection of a third party's right to privacy when such release of information would amount to the unreasonable and/or unlawful disclosure of personal information of that person, including the personal information of a deceased individual;

- 7.1.2 mandatory protection of any commercial information of a third party, including but not limited to any trade secrets, commercial and/or intellectual property where disclosure would cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party;
- 7.1.3 any confidential information which is protected by an agreement between the parties;
- 7.1.4 mandatory protection and information that would be considered privileged in terms of any legal and/or medical proceedings;
- 7.1.5 if disclosure of information or a record could reasonably be expected to endanger the life/physical safety, privacy and identity of an individual;
- 7.1.6 any intellectual, commercial and/or related documentation relating to the business activities of the Hospitals;
- 7.1.7 any research information being carried out/to be carried out by/on behalf of a third party where such disclosure would likely expose the third party, a person carrying out the research, or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage; and
- 7.1.8 any other reason that is allowed in any applicable law.

8 RECORDS AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF OTHER LEGISLATION

- 8.1 In terms of section 51(1)(d), it must be noted that the Company holds information that may be made available in accordance with the following legislation, subject to conditions set out therein. it must be noted that laws and regulations are often amended from time to time, and that this list should not be considered exhaustive –
